

Middlebury Police Department

Media Release

5 March 2008

Subject: Missing Person Investigation – Nicholas Garza

The investigation into the disappearance of Nicholas Garza continued to today. No new leads were developed into the cause or manner of his disappearance.

To date, the following agencies have provided technical and logistical assistance to the Middlebury Police Department in this investigation:

- Vermont State Police Criminal Division
- Vermont State Police, New Haven
- National Center for Missing and Exploited Children
- National Crime Information Center
- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Middlebury College Department of Public Safety
- Middlebury College Facilities Staff
- Middlebury College Administration
- Vermont Fusion Center
- Vermont Internet Crimes Against Children Center
- Vermont State Police Search and Rescue Team
- Middlebury Fire Department
- Community Emergency Response Team
- Colchester Technical Rescue Team
- Stowe Mountain Rescue Team
- Norwich Cold Weather Rescue Team
- New England Canine
- Upper Valley Wilderness Response Team
- The U.S. Attorney's Office, Vermont
- The Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation
- The many media outlets that provided multi-media coverage of this investigation and provided outlets for bulletins and solicitations for public assistance.

The investigation is on-going. All media releases are posted at www.middleburypolice.org under the link for "News", scroll down for the Nicholas Garza link.

Thomas Hanley
Chief of Police