Sub: MPD officer wins award

Congratulations to Officer Bill Austin for being the recipient of the "Leadership Award," as selected by the recent graduates of the VT Police Academy's 96th Basic Training Class, where Officer Austin spent a week with the recruits as one of their Training Assistants (TA).

This award is presented to one TA from each class for being the TA "Who excelled in demonstrating leadership by example, professionalism, purposeful discipline, motivation, approachability, physical fitness, and a sense of humor."
